and support services you need – all in one place

You're ready to turn your well-developed skill or long-enjoyed interest into a fun and rewarding new business.

But, you need some help navigating the path.

Launch quickly and professionally with your own start-up team.

Imagine having your very own business start-up team headed by an experienced business start-up expert. Every planning decision clearly explained to you. Tutoring in new business management skills. Intensive coaching to aid you in completing a powerful marketing system for your new business. And a responsive support staff to help you assure that all the legal and financial details are properly completed.

You never have to wonder what to do next...you're surrounded by our business start-up team directed by your very own Virtual Incubator coach.

Join our community of successful new business owners.

The award-winning Virtual Incubator planning process uses proven techniques and draws upon top-notch service providers to assure your success. That's why more than 4,000 new entrepreneurs have participated in our street-smart business start-up coaching program. We take what can seem like a complicated process and break it down into a series of easily-understood tasks.

"I wouldn't have known how to get my consulting business underway without the help of my Virtual Incubator coach".

- Ken Proskie, Compass Health & Safety

Each week you receive advice and encouragement from your Virtual Incubator coach. When a planning decision can be completed more expertly with the help of a service provider, your Virtual Incubator coach hooks you up with a selected member of our start-up team. When you can speed up your decision-making by using a carefully selected online resource, your coach brings in our support staff to guide you through its use during a one-on-one phone session.
